
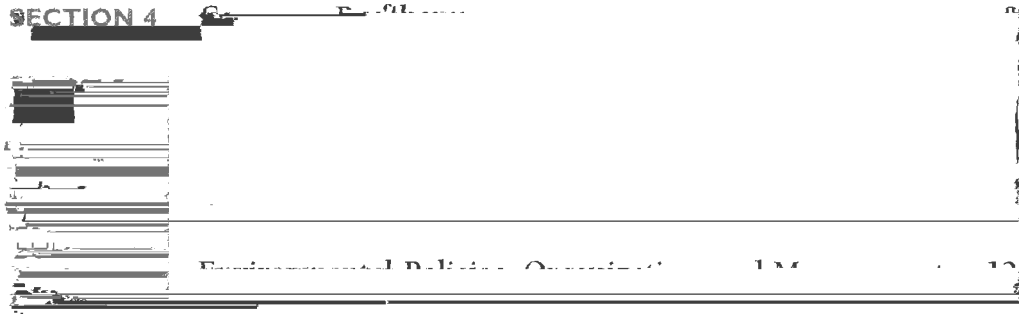
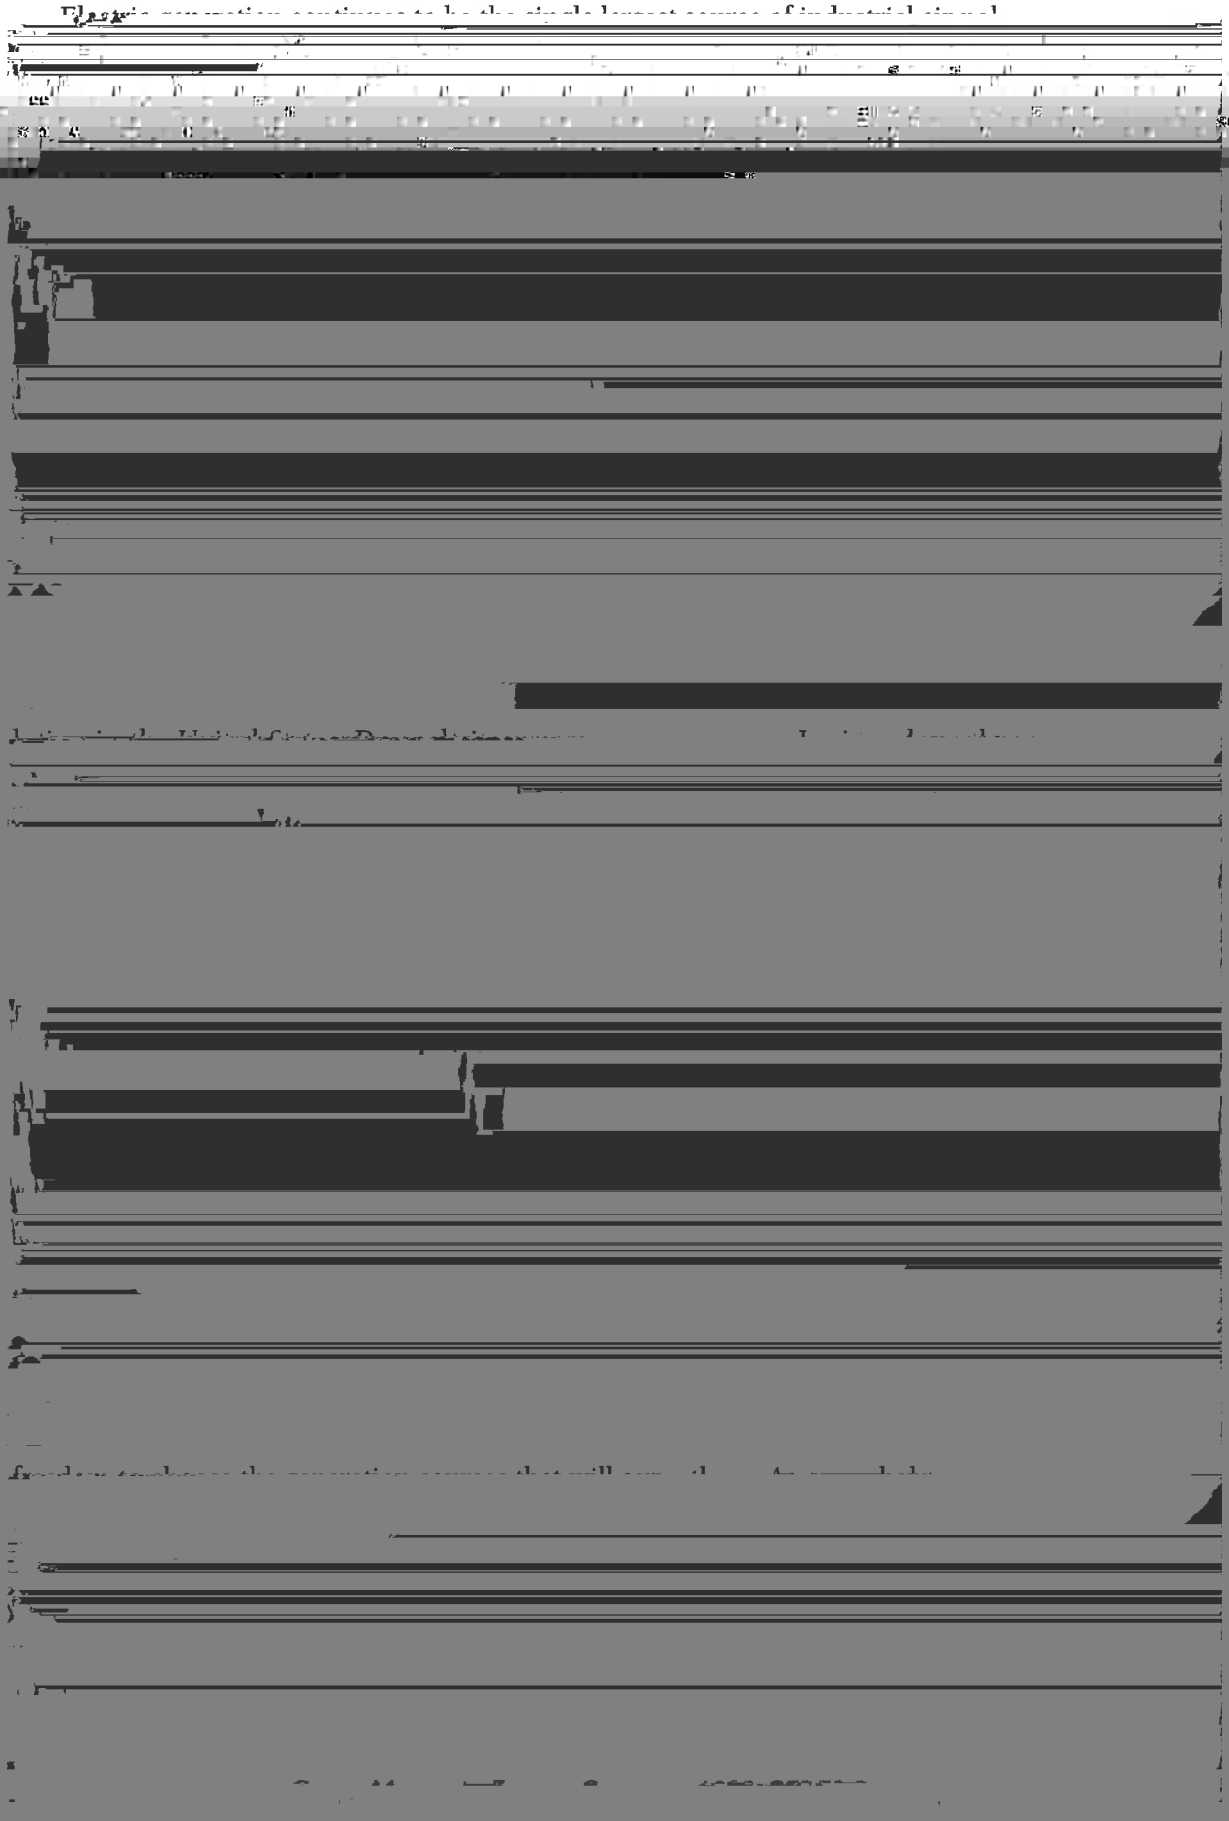
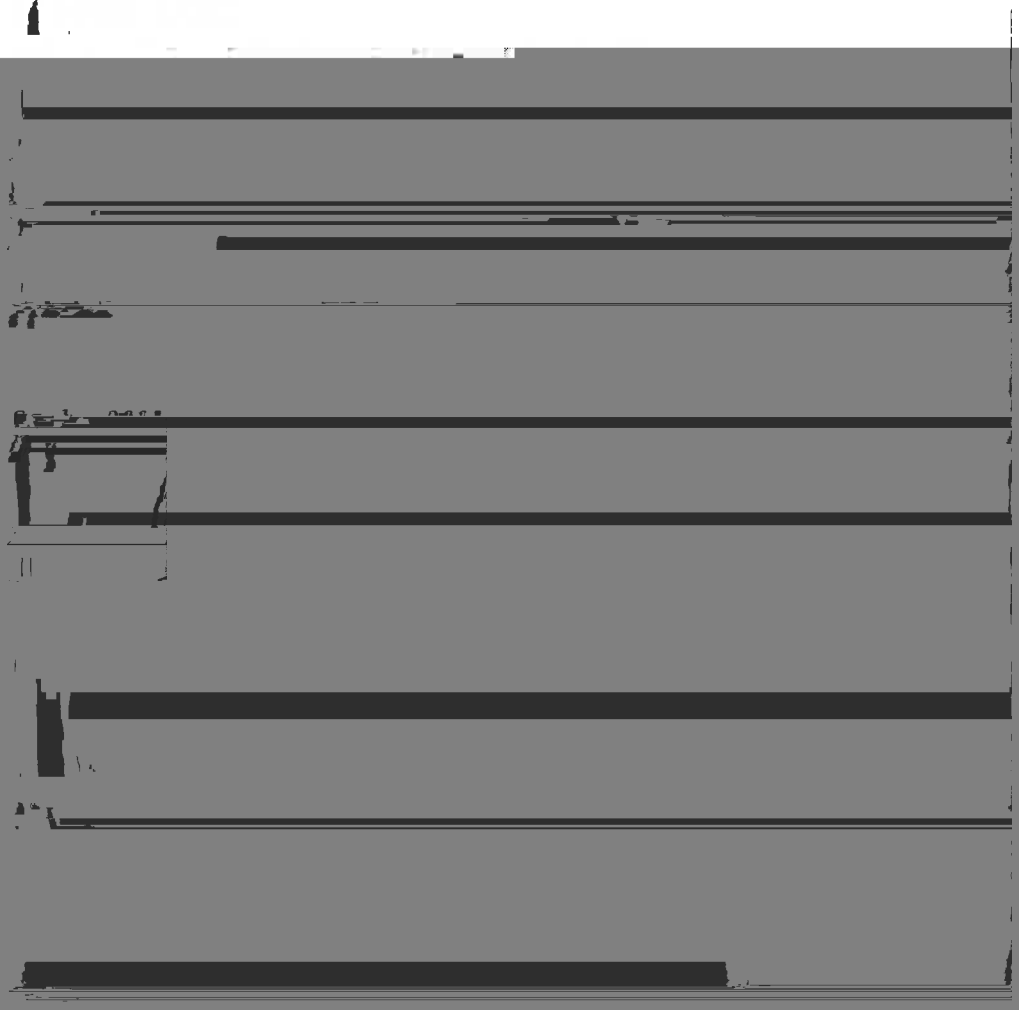
SECTION 2

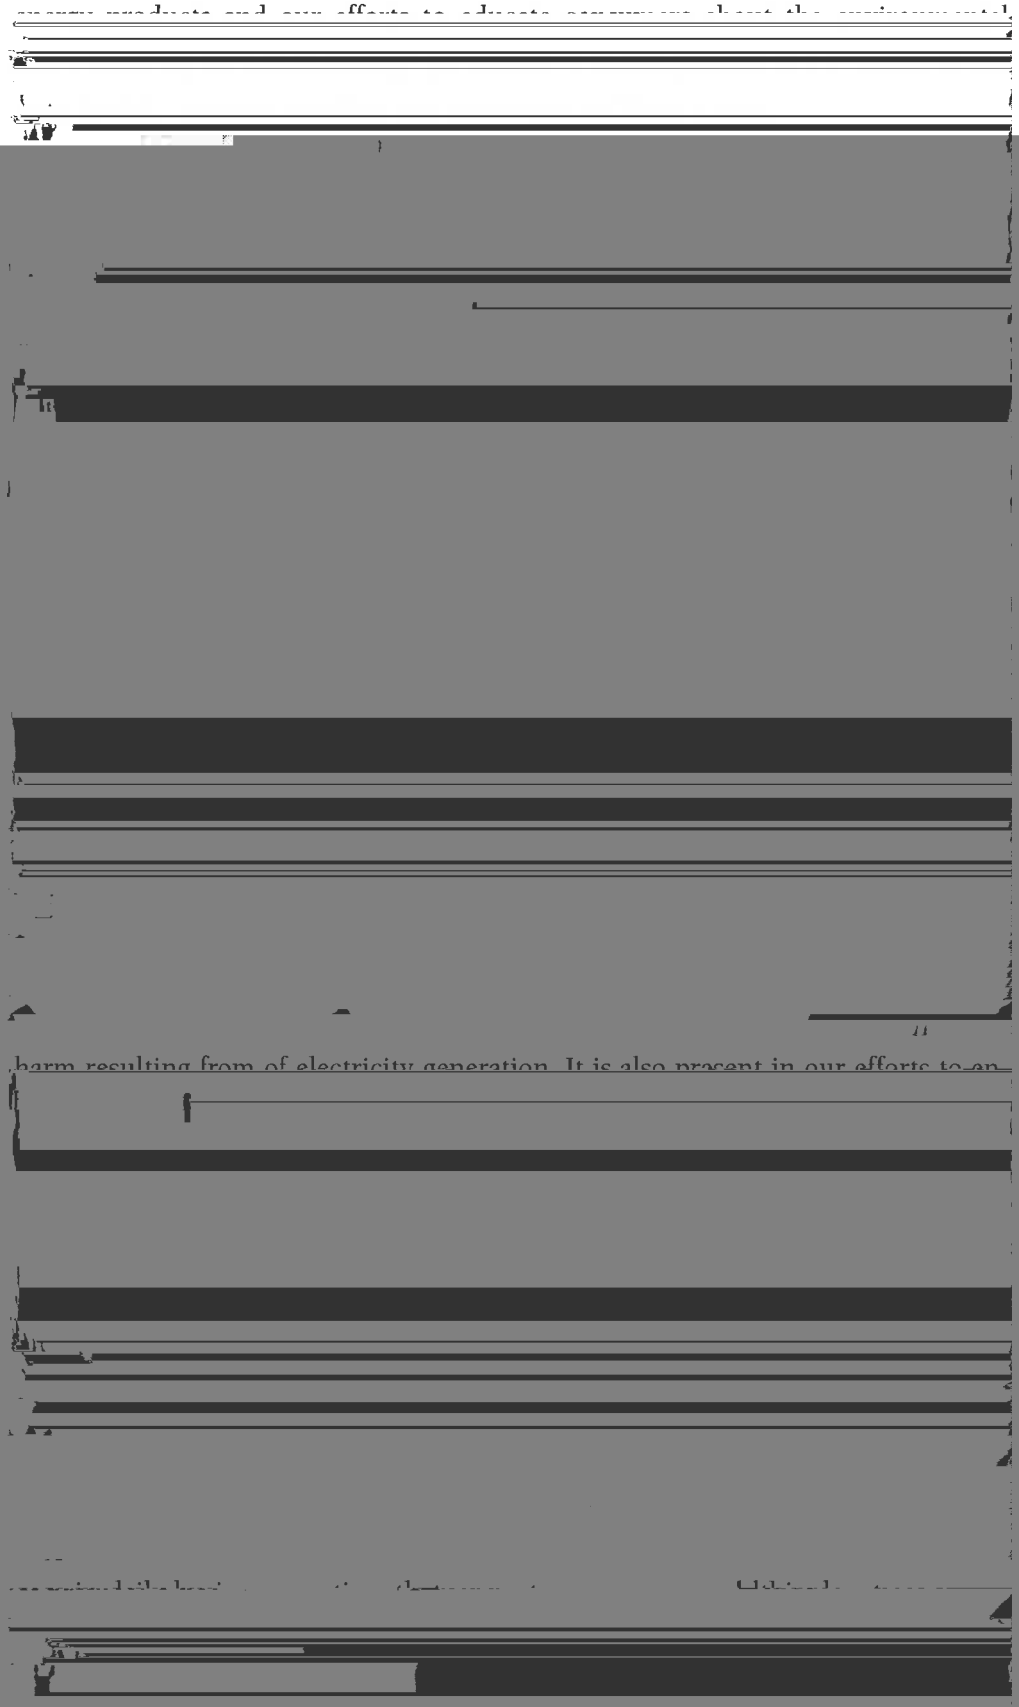
SECTION 3

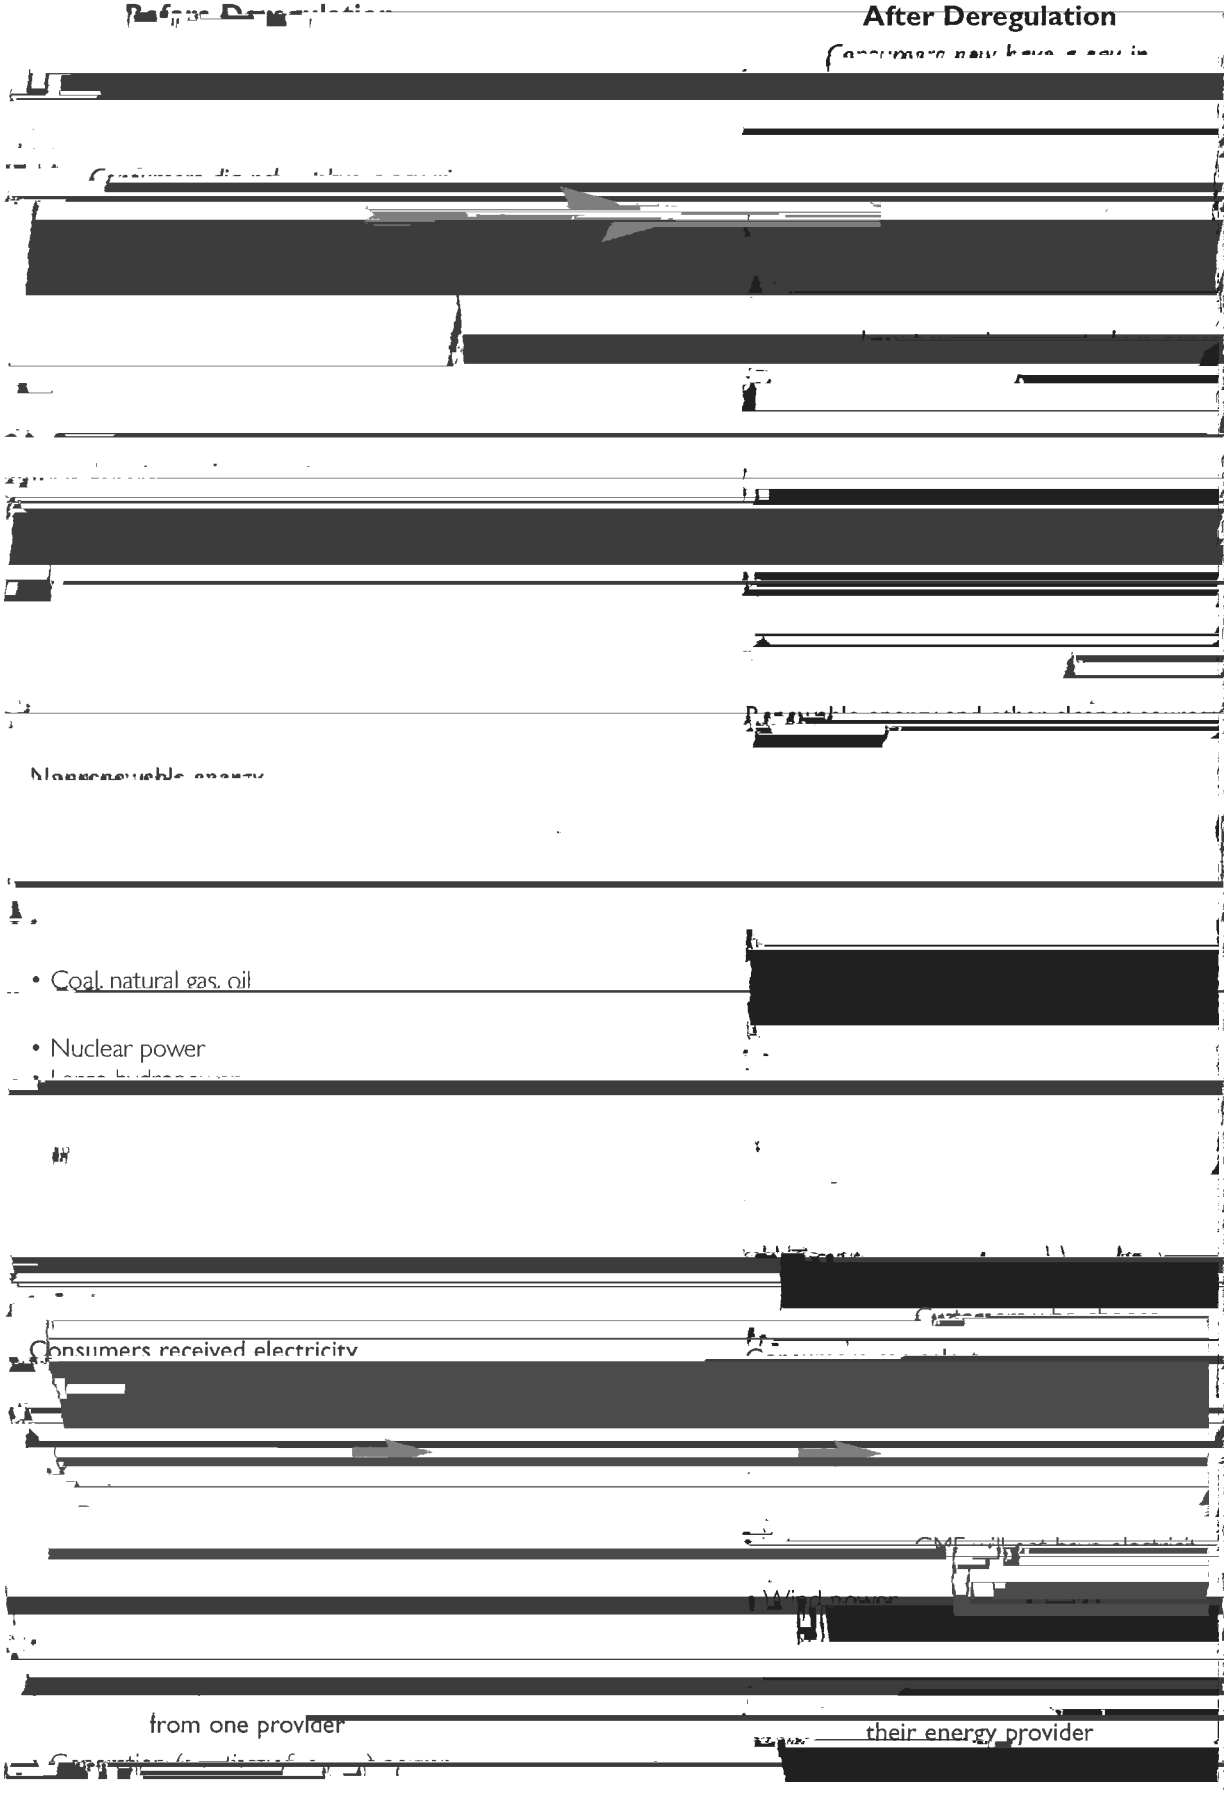
SECTION 4











After Deregulation
• Coal, natural gas, oil
• Nuclear power
Consumers received electricity
from one provider
their energy provider

Additional Products

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

will be putting more or less of these energy sources in

Sales and Revenue by Sector

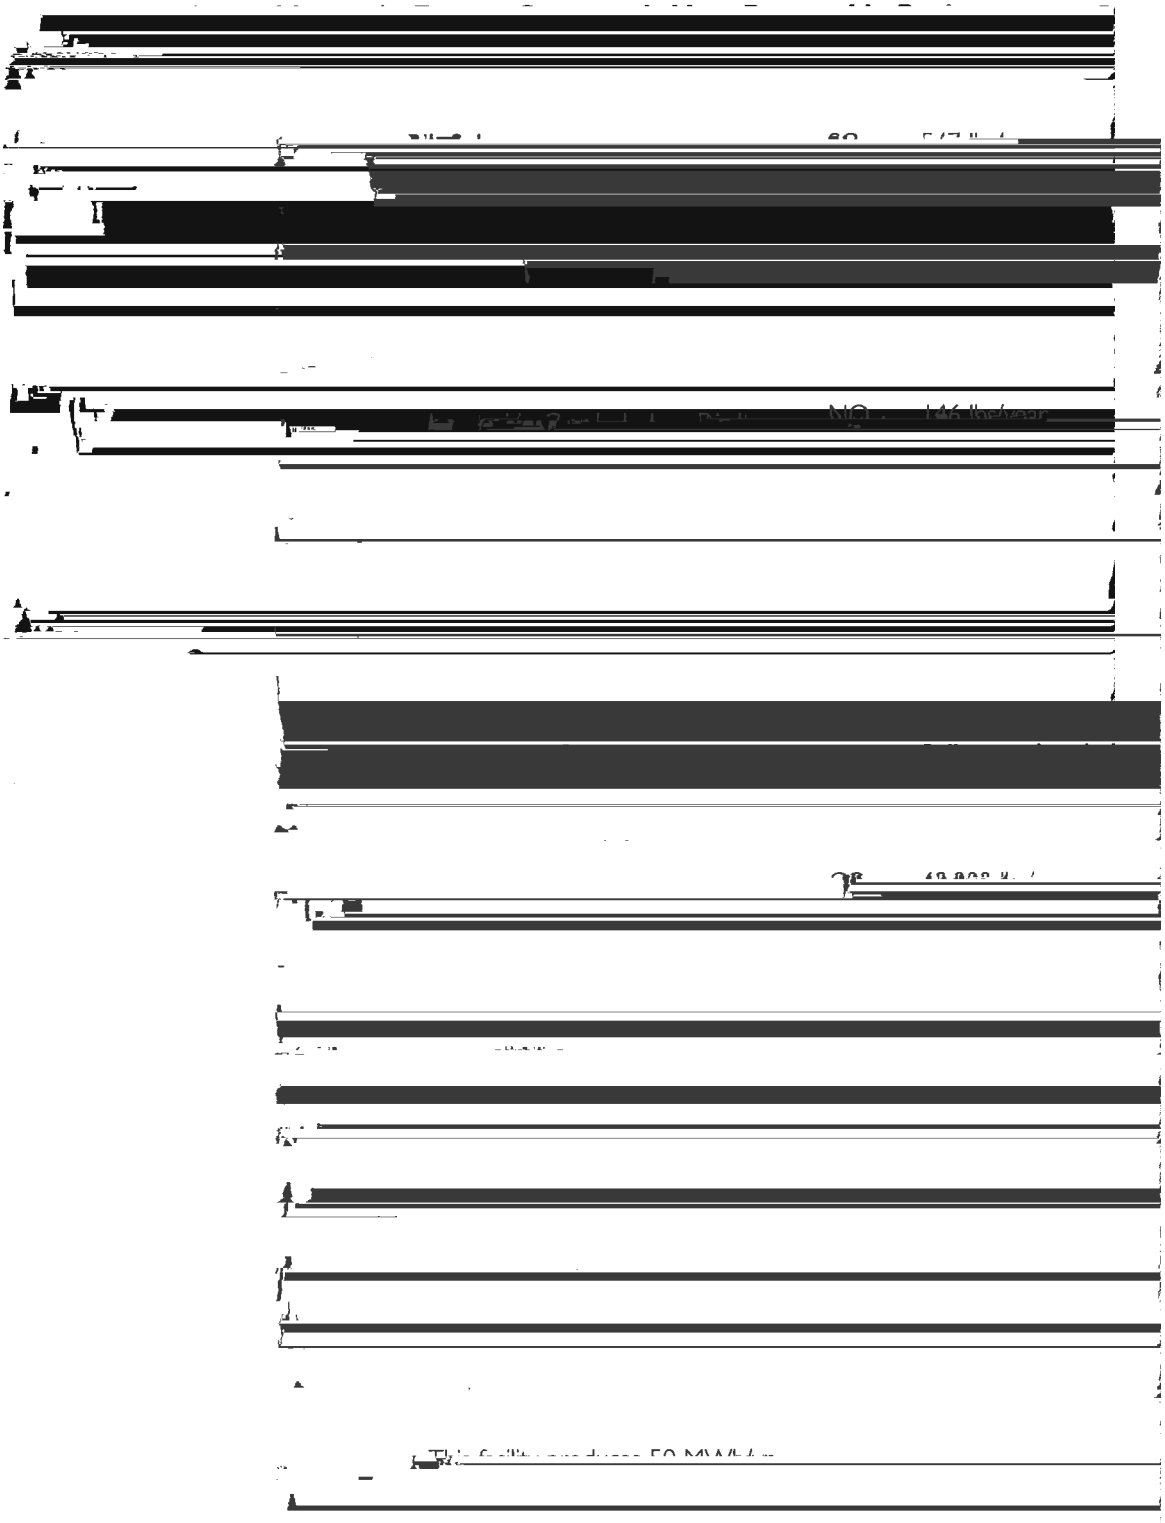
Sector	of Scale*	Amount	Revenue
Natural gas

match our customers' annual electricity use by deliv

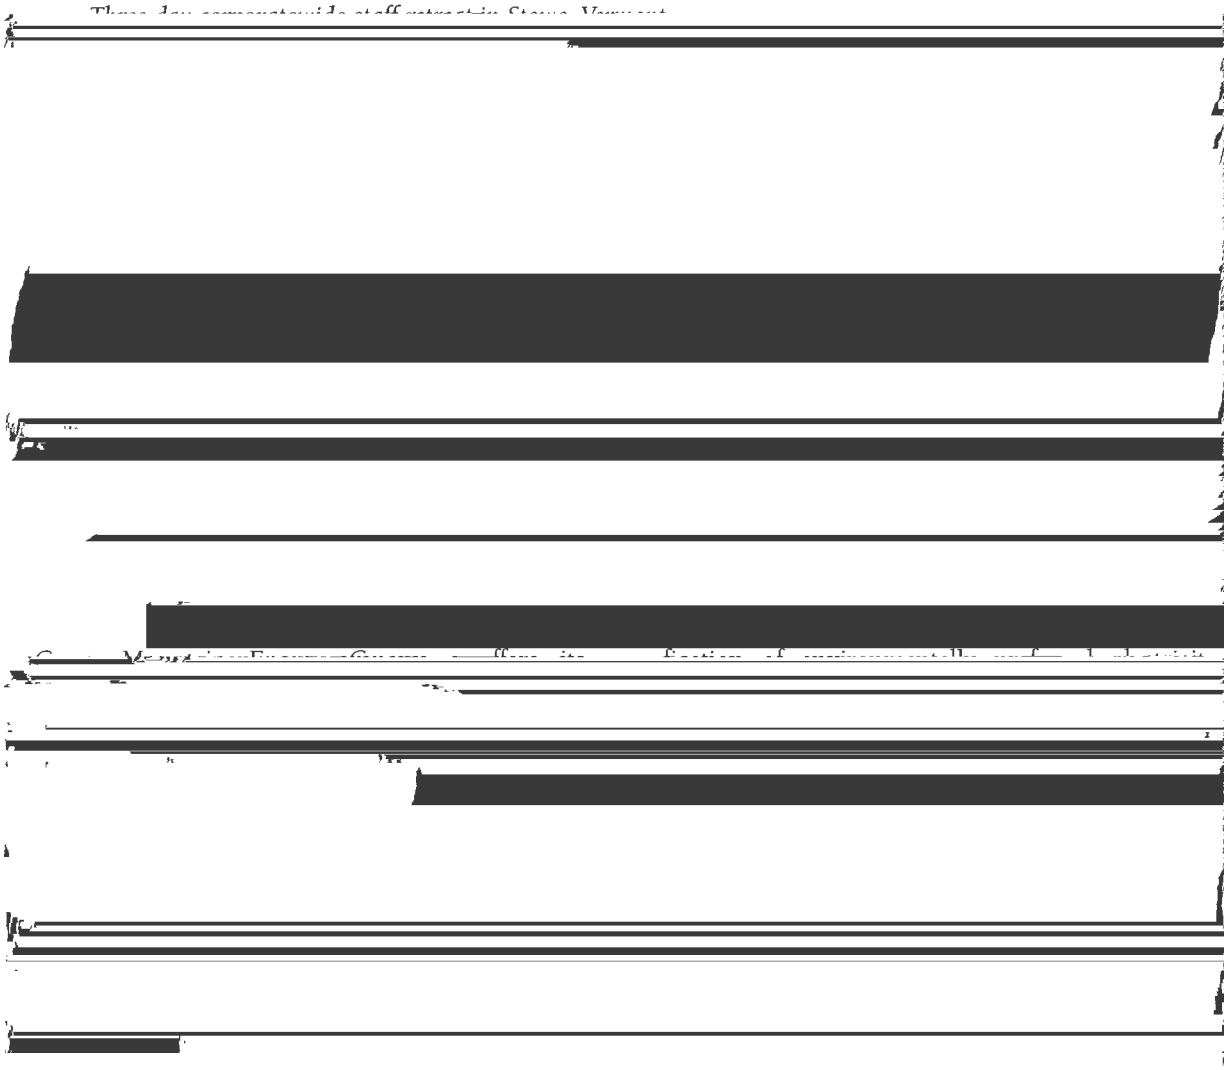
Environmental Policies

Air Impacts of Conventional Electricity Generation

Pollutant	Percentage of All Air Emissions Released Each Year in the U.S.	Environmental Effect of Pollutant



CERES Principles	April 1999	April 1999	Companywide	Yes1
				Yes1
Green Mountain
				Yes2
				Yes1
	Fall 1997	June 30 1999	Companywide
Green Mountain's Values	Fall 1997	Fall 1997	Companywide
Recycling Policy	Fall 1997	February 1999	Companywide

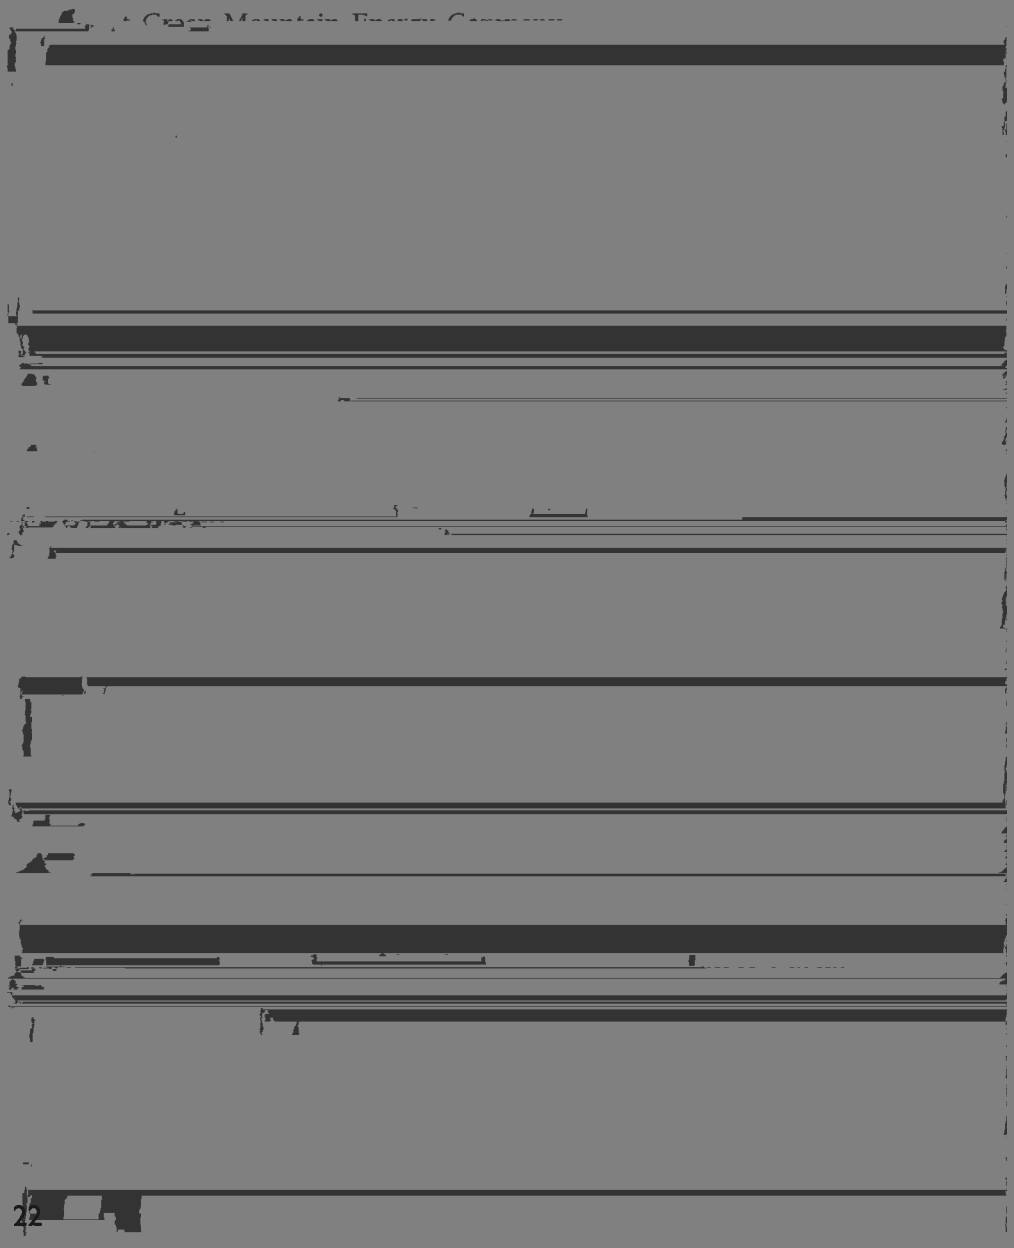


Work Safety Performance

Year	Incidents	Description	Result	Employee

SECTION 4

Community Participation



[redacted]

Environmental Justice

[redacted]

[redacted]

Earth Share—Earth Share, a federation of America's

[redacted]

leading nonprofit environmental and conservation

[redacted]

"As a local business leader [redacted] Mountain

[redacted]

[redacted]

Environmental Advisory Board

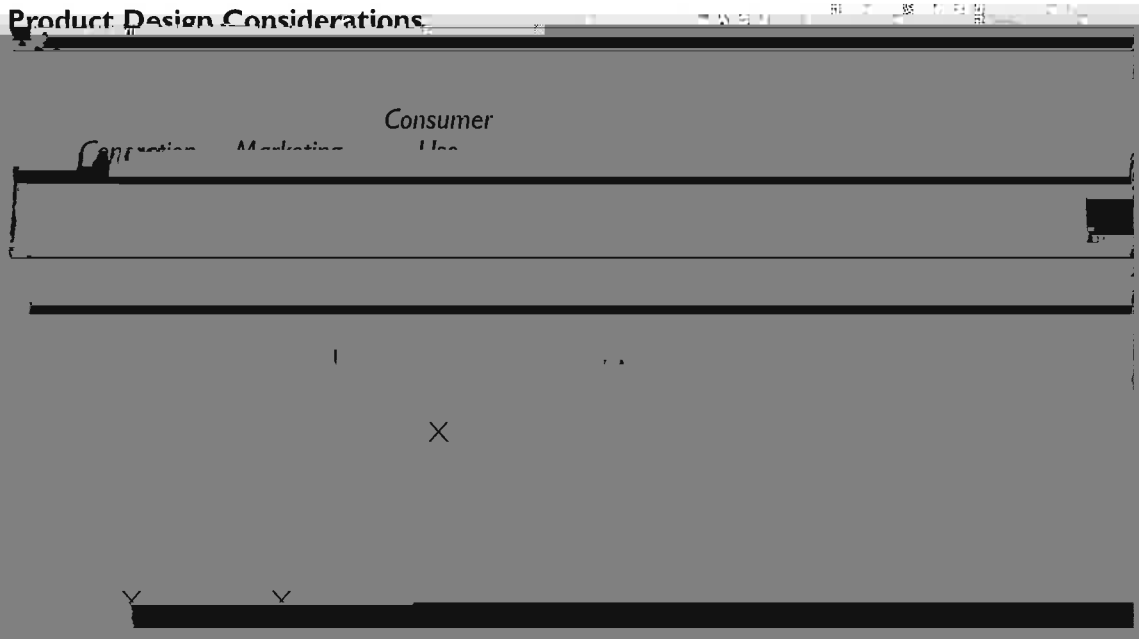
[redacted]

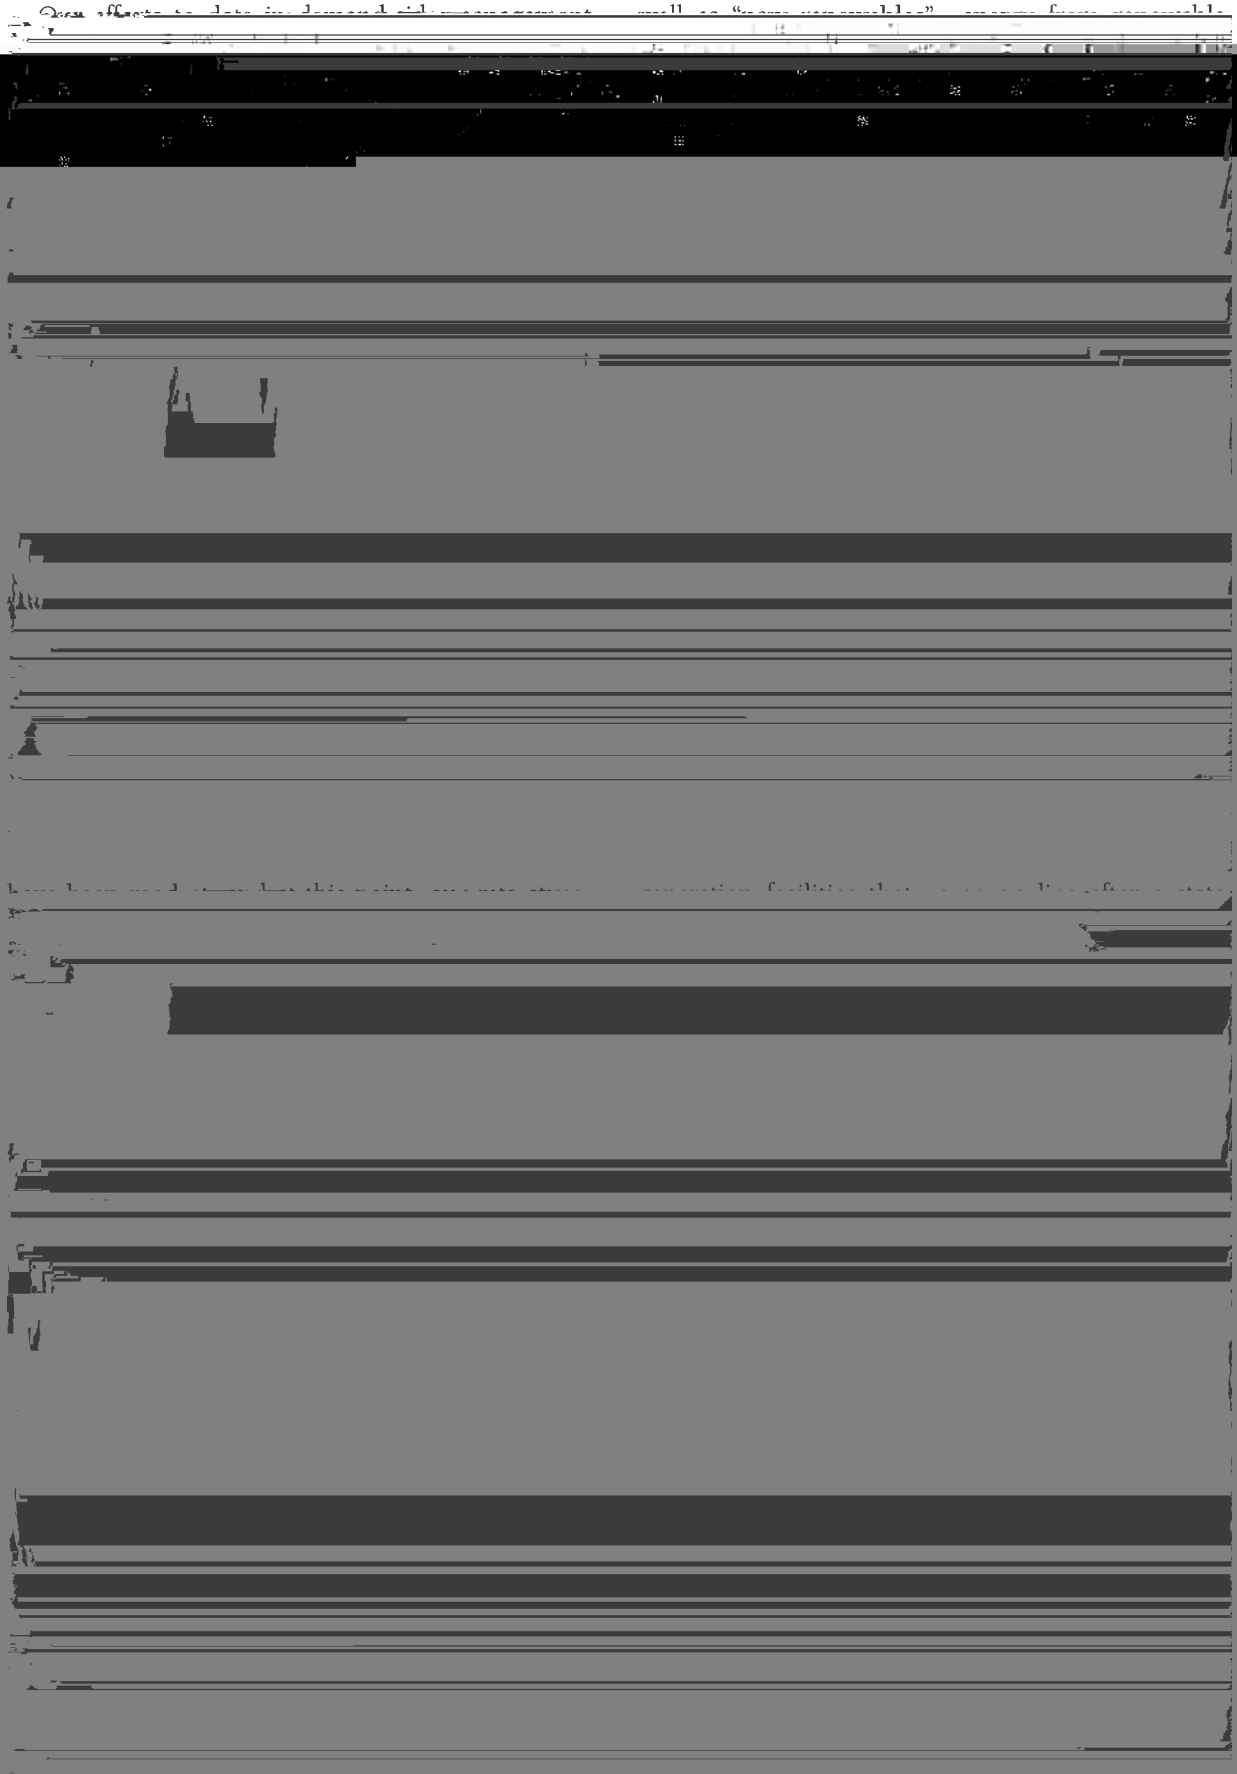
Ralph Cavanagh [redacted]

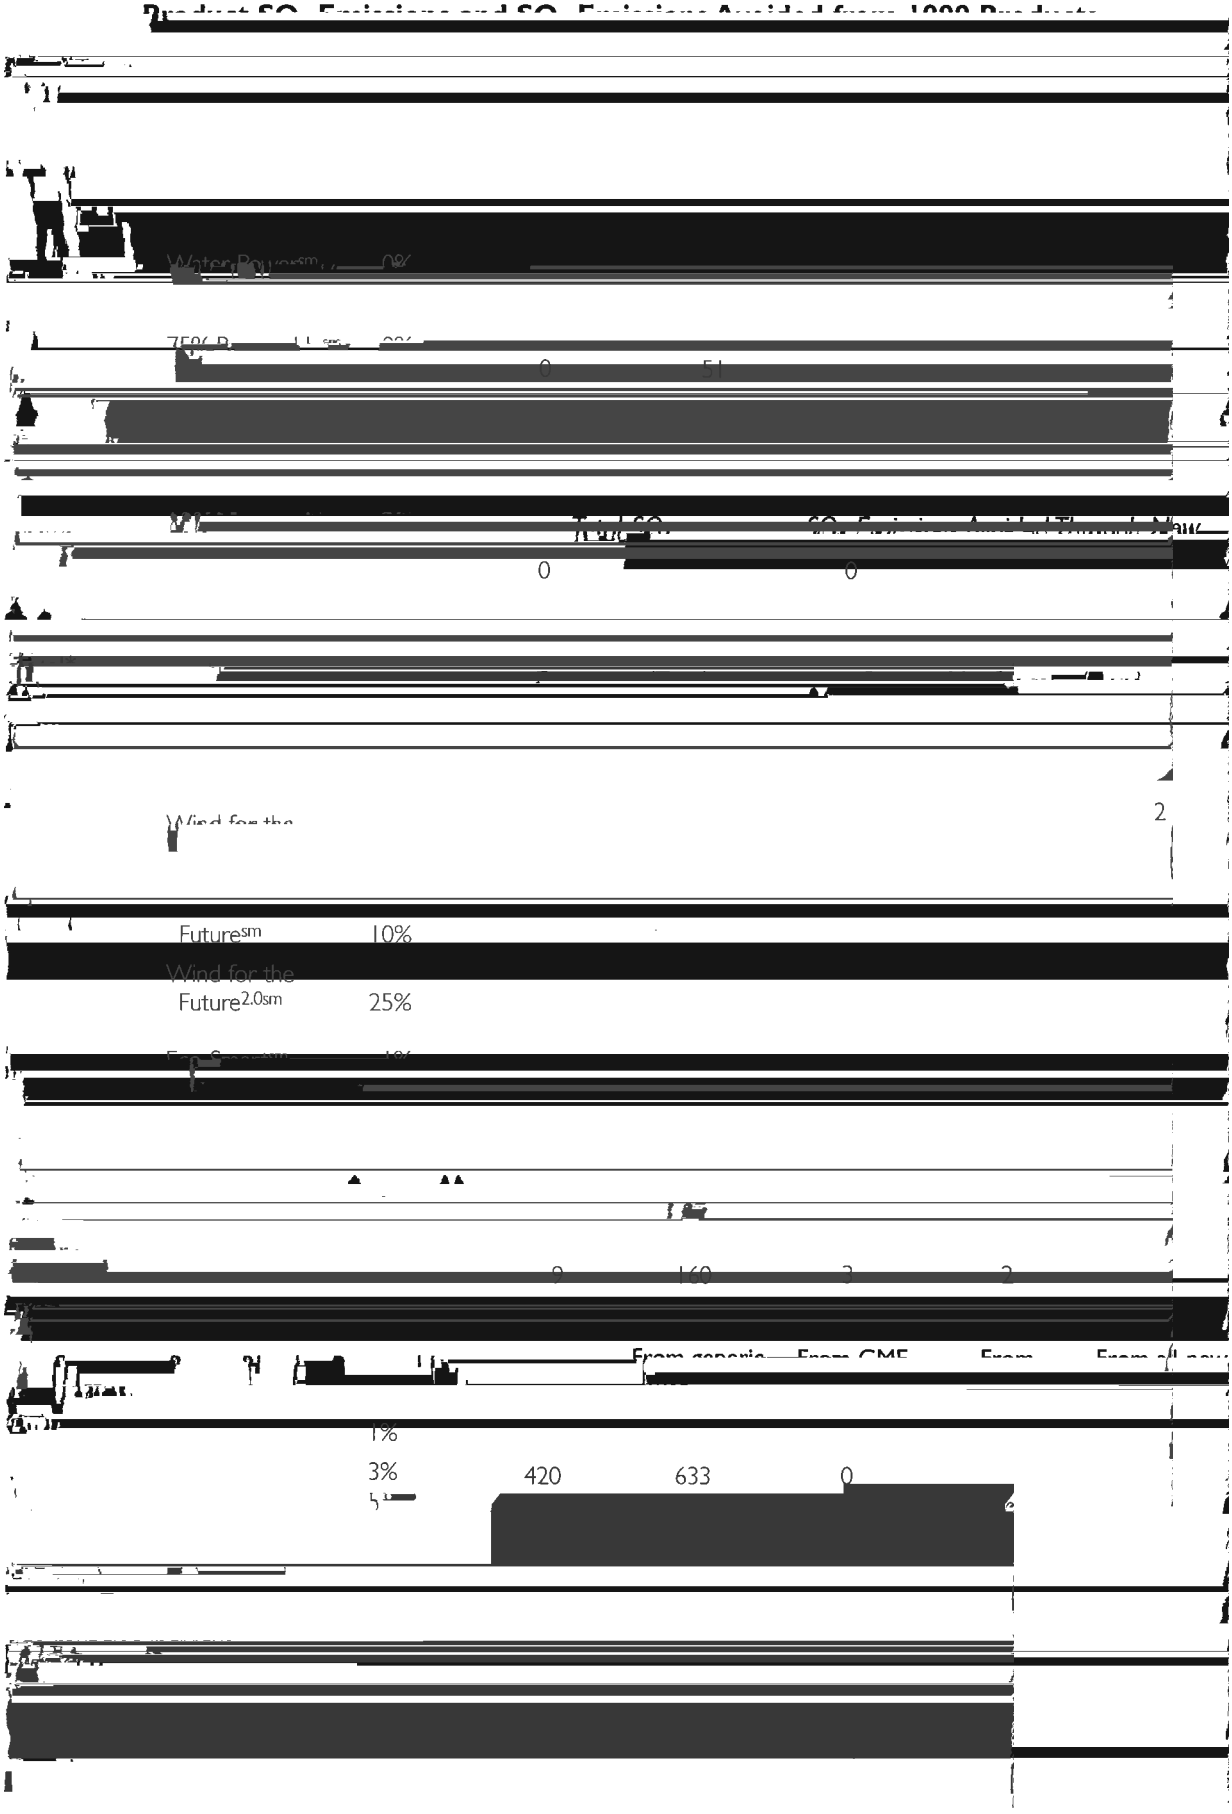
[redacted]

Natural Resources Defense Council [redacted]

Product Design Considerations







Future^sm 10%
Future^2.0sm 25%
1%
3%
420
633
0

fied products other than what may be purchased for the product.

0% 0% 0%

is to help promote renewable energy

[redacted]

American Rivers and other environmental organiza-

[redacted]

Power Source Source of MWh Sold

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

[

of the Green Mountain Environmental Charter and Environmental Management Policy.

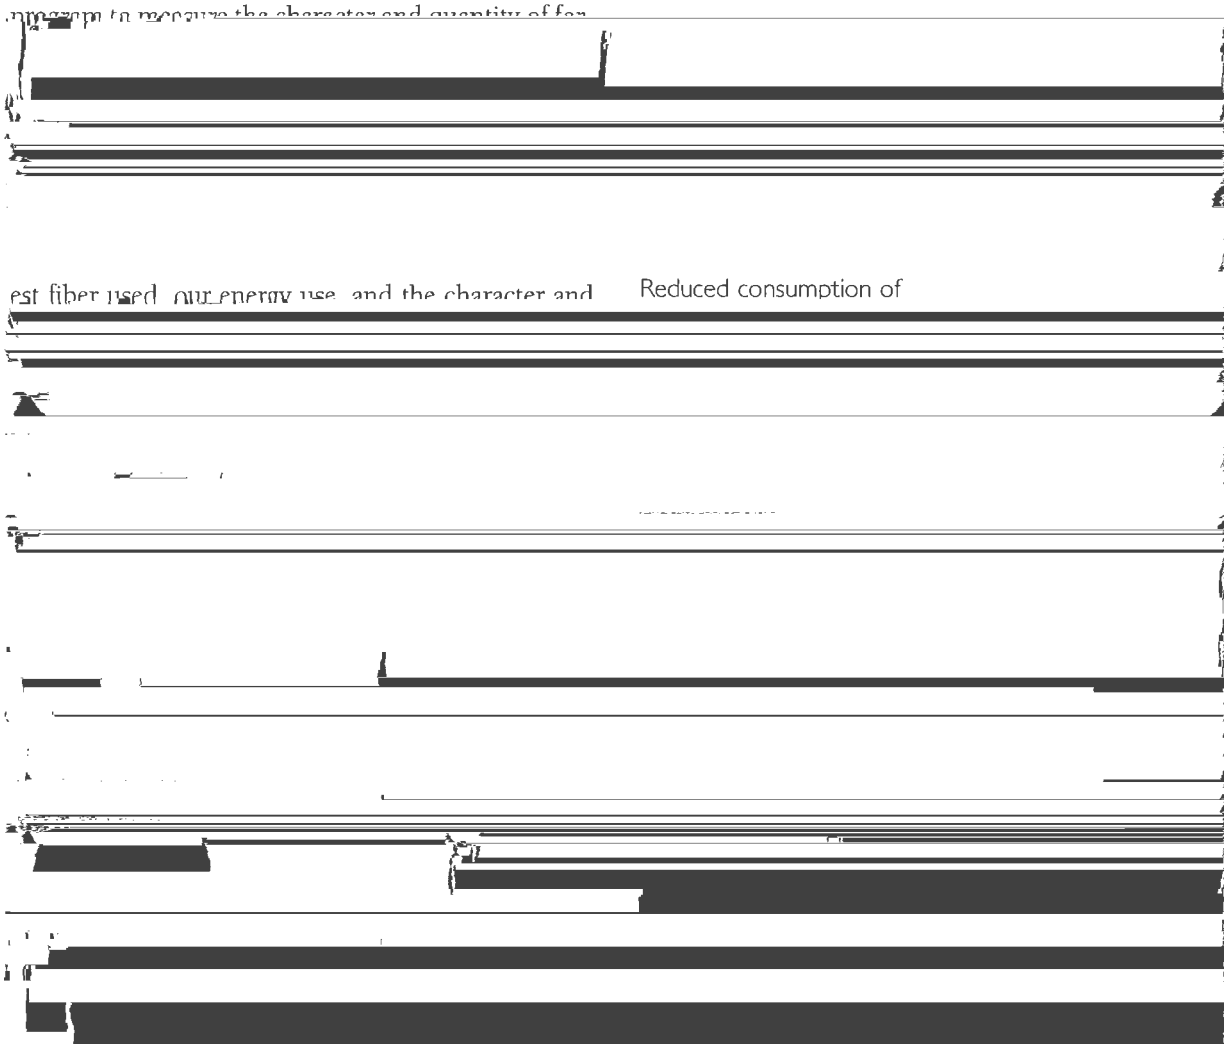
In 1999, we initiated an environmental metrics program to measure the character and quantity of fan



est fiber used, our energy use, and the character and Reduced consumption of the degree to which habitat would be impacted by development of the sites. This impact assessment invironment. In fact, part of the proposed site had formerly been used as a strip mine. The community

Green Mountain Energy Company
CO_2 Mitigation Strategy

District. Green Mountain Energy Company was presented the "Partners in Recycling Award" for

1999 CO_2 Emissions

	Air Travel	Employee Commuting	Paper Manufacturing	Corporate Headquarters Energy Use	Total

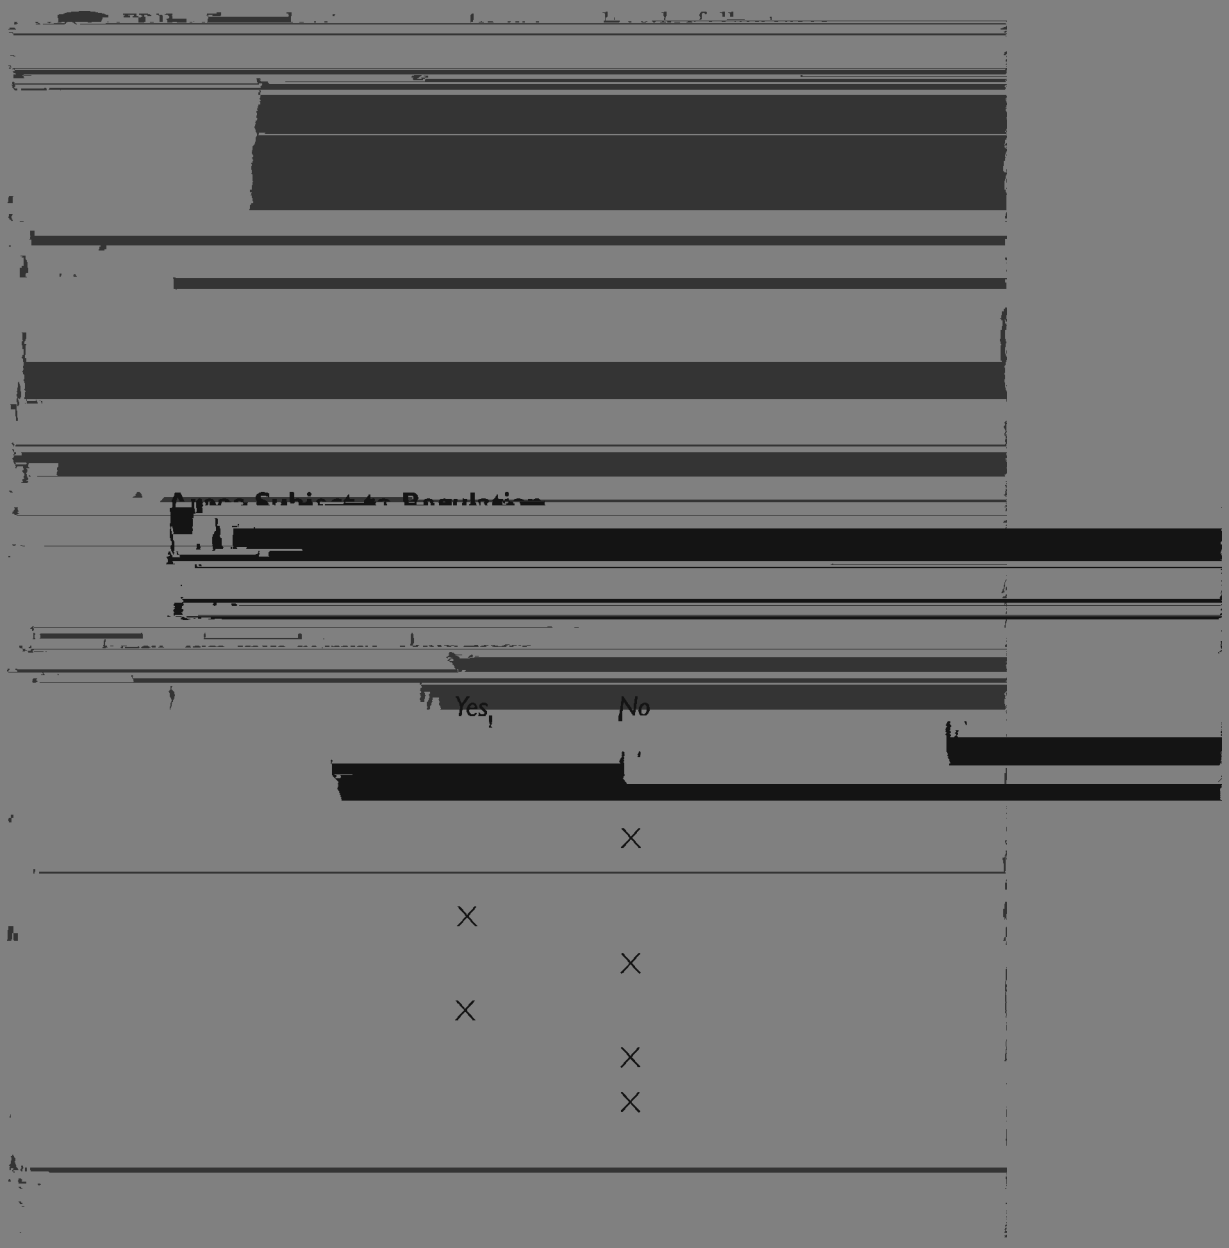
Weighted Emissions Credits Required (metric tons of carbon dioxide) 959

also instituted the Green Mountain Environmental Management

Estimated Cubic Yards

Waste Volume Estimated per Employee



Yes
No